

What is

PIZZA AL TAGLIO

[pitsa /al / tà-li-oh]

Literally, "pizza by the cut" pizza al taglio is baked in rectangular trays and considered Rome's favorite street food. We make all of our dough by scratch using natural flours with a low gluten content and allow it to rise for 72 hours, which results in a light and airy crust that is easy to digest. We proudly feature Boar's Head® ingredients as well as local produce in the Italian tradition of eating locally and seasonally.
